Dear Gov. Musgrove

I am writing to you again about the jena choctaws trying to get a reservation in our county to put in a casino. Please fight this attempt that could ruin our beautiful county and our children. Apparently the jena tribe and Danny Ryan(our president of the board of supervisors) intend to shove this casino down our throat in spite of the fact that our board of supervisors voted 3-2 not to support a casino and the straw poll that was taken in the county with a larger turnout than the presidential election proved that the majority of our citizens do not want gambling here. Thank you for your support on this issue in the past and please help keep this casino away from our county and the city of iuka. God Bless You
